

GRADUATE TALENT ASSESSMENT (GRADTA)

The Graduate Talent Assessment (GradTA) is a multi-rater feedback tool designed to help organisations consistently measure the performance of their graduates based on key stakeholders' feedback. The GradTA assesses graduates across a number of key themes, including self-management, relationship management, performance and achievement orientation.

The GradTA is designed to support graduate development and engagement throughout the graduate placement and to provide the graduate with a development focus early on in their working career.

APPLICATION

- An objective, structured and comprehensive method to compare graduates within the same cohort
- To provide real insight into performance
- To develop future leaders
- As part of a performance review process

HIGHLIGHTS

- Benchmarks the graduate's score against a self-score, and scores from peers and managers
- Lists strengths and development opportunities to facilitate development planning
- Includes respondents' verbatim comments
- Early career opportunity to receive multi-rater feedback

A large, light blue outline of a magnifying glass is positioned on the right side of the page. The lens of the magnifying glass is centered on the text 'HOW DO YOU DEVELOP AND RETAIN YOUR GRADUATES?'.
